CT Scanners lying idle in Government Hospitals in Delhi

2231. SHRI J. CHITHARANJAN: Will the Minister of HEALTH AND FAMILY WELFARE be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that CT Scanners are lying as junk in three Government Hospitals, i.e., Hindu Rao Hospital, Dcen Dayal Upadhyay Hospital and Swami Dayanand Hospital in Delhi for a long time;

(b) if so, the details thereof and the reasons therefor; and

(c) the steps being taken, if any to reactivate them?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HEALTH AND FAMILY WELFARE (SHRI A. RAJA): (a) to (c) Yes, Sir. The Government of NCT of Delhi has informed that the CT Scanners in these Hospitals have outlived their life and are uneconomical for repair. Further, the manufacturers of the CT Scanners have expressed their inability to repair them as the machines are obsolete.

Action taken on the recommendations of NHRC

2232. SHRI SURESH KALMADI:
SHRIMATI AMBIKA SONI:

Will the Minister of HEALTH AND FAMILY WELFARE be pleased to state the action taken on the recommendations of the National Human Rights Commission urging revamping of the system of licensing and certification to prevent spurious and sub-standard I.V. fluids in the market?
